

RARE WHOLE BUILDING OPPORTUNITY

Refurbished churches are hard to come by, with only a number of successful church conversions in the city fringe, don't miss this opportunity to secure it. Currently occupied by a leading edge production agency, this inner city HQ is a perfect for a wide range of creative businesses. Formally trading as a bar, the owners have retained features throughout the buildings long tenure, including the bar, exposed pitched church ceilings on the upper floor and original barn style doors on both floors.

Features include:

- 200 sqm spanning over two generous floors
- Built in a Gothic revival style church which has been deconsecrated & renovated to a high standard
- Original bar fit-out on ground floor and creative office fit-out on upper floors
- Great creative feel with exposed ceiling beams
- High pitched ceiling with great natural light
- Suitable for 15-20 staff + event space
- Short stroll from Central Station
