

KENT STREET

Interpro House at 447 Kent Street is a strata titled B Grade office building located adjacent to the Queen Victoria Building. The 16 storey property was constructed in the early 1970s and underwent significant upgrades in 1995, now with an expansive foyer, four passenger lifts and two levels of basement car parking. The secure building has a concierge service and bicycle storage, while the desirable location places your business just steps from Town Hall Station and some of Sydney's top banks, organisations, shopping malls and entertainment precincts. With a premier address and easy access in and out of the city, this flexible office space will be a cost-effective solution for any growing company.
